HOOSIER POLITICS.

How the Leaders Talk and What is Said In the State.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 7.—The next lieutenant governor was in town yesterday, for both republican and democratic candates were here. Judge J. C. Nelson, democratic candidate, passed through on a campaigning tour. He says that for an off year the interest in the campaign is unusually wide-spread, and that all of the candidates seem to be having good audiences. He looks upon democratic prospects as giving almost certain promise of success, and thinks the democrats will gain one congressman. Dr. H. D. Hattery, he says is making a popular race against Owen in the tenth district, with prospects of defeating him.

Colonel R. S. Robertson, the republican candidate for lieutenant governor, was in the city. To a News reporter he said: "I feel much encouraged by the canvass I have made thus far. I find everywhere among republicans that faith will bring works, and that is what we want. In a few districts there is a seeming apathy, but I think this will give place to energetic measures before long. We are doing our missionary work in this direction. If we can get the full republican vote out, we will carry the state by a good majority."

ROBHESTER, Ind., Oct. 7.—Gov. Gray addressed the citizens of Fulton county. He desired it, however, to be distinctly understood that he is not a candidate for senator, yet, if perchance, the general assembly this winter makes the choice as between the governor and Joseph E. McDonald, he will accept the honor.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 7.—Senator Joseph E. McDonald and William R. Myers addressed the democrats here last night. They were greeted by a large audience. The senator discussed the tariff and liquor questions mainly, and indorsed Cleveland's administration, which met the popular expectation.

SALEM, Ind., Oct. 7.—Hon. R. M. Miers and Charles Munson, candidate for secretary and auditor of state, spoke at Warrinner's hall to a large democratic audience. While Mr. Munson's remarks were not extended, they were to the point and well appreciated, making a fine impression on the audience. Judge Miers made a fine democratic speech, striking straignt out from the shoulder, showing democratic economy and good management of public affairs since their acendency into power, while he showed up republican inconsistency.

Wabash Bonds Sold.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 7.—S. A. Keane & Co., bankers of Chicago, were the successful bidders for $10,000 gravel road bonds issued by the county. Their bid was the highest among eleven, being $1,361, or a premium of 3 6-10 per cent.

AFTER THE RASCALS.

The Former Buckeye Penitentiary Officials Indicted.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—The Franklin county grand jury, which has been investigating the alleged stealing by officials under the former administrations of the Ohio penitentiary, made a report this morning, but found only indictments in connection with the prison management. One is against B. H. Marriott, ex-deputy warden, for bribery; one against the ex-superintendent of the state shops, Perry, for embezzlement. There was no indictment in the election forgery case.

An Ocean Steamer Missing.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Anchor line steamship Anchoria, had not been heard from up to a late hour last night. She sailed from Queenstown September 26, and is to-day twenty-one days out.

CHICACO NEWS.

Two Children Perish in a Burning Building.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Two children, a boy aged ten years, and his sister, three years younger, were burned to death in No. 125 Warren avenue, by a fire which broke out about 2:25 this morning in the house of George Davis. The occupant of the house had not been aroused at the time the discovery of the fire was made, and such as saved themselves were obliged to jump from the upper story windows. The mother of the children burned was very seriously, if not fatally injured, and had one arm broken in several places.

Although no definite information has been given out by the packers' committee of arrangements, it is currently reported the employes will be formally notified on Saturday of the intention to return to the ten hour system Monday, and if they fail to return to work on the new scale the houses will be closed.

A policeman at the Northwestern depot late last evening observed two small boys, neither over six years of age, standing at the gate alone, carrying between them, a large satchel. When the officer approached them, one ran away while the other stood his ground. When closely questioned the little urchin burst out crying and said he was going west to herd cattle. He was taken to the police station, where he admitted his name was John Frickson, and that he had run away from his home, 206 Sedgewick street. The valice was opened and found to contain only a vest. two large calibre revolvers, and a plentiful stock of cakes and pies. He said the other boy's name was John Dunn, and that he had stolen $25 from his father and two revolvers from his brother, and they were going to start a ranch in Idaho. He had also two through tickets for St. Paul, Minn. The child was locked up and the father sent for.

Notices were this morning posted in all the stock yards packing houses to the effect that on and after next Monday the hours of work would be ten hours, instead of eight, as is now the rule.

Fire Record.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 7.—A fire in the Union Furniture company's establishment, caused the total loss of $60,000. Insurance $22,500.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In the fire in the fourth storn ractory on Bayard street this morning workmen jumped to the roof of the lower building. One women fell to the street and was killed.

FOREIGN NEWS.

A King is Murdered by His Subjects---The News Abroad.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Advices from St. Louis, Senegal, state that King Trarzas has been murdered by his nephew.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Royal Inniskilling fusiliers, stationed at Aldershot, went on a riot last night in resistance to a draft for service in Africa. A savage fight ensued and the Irishmen were only subdued after a number of the soldiers and police were wounded. Forty rioters were arrested.

SOFIA, Oct. 7.—The government has notified the foreign consuls at Sofia, that General Kaulbars, through the Russian consul at Rutchuk, ordered the military commander there to release the political conspirators in his custody, threatening to hold him responsible if he disobeyed, and promising as a reward for his compliance, promotion to the rank of commander general when the Russians arrive, and informing him that the penalty of refusal would be a reduction to the ranks. The commander informed the troops under his command that he had received and declined the command, and the soldiers applauded his conduct.

THEY MUST HANG.

The Death Verdict Against Chicago Anarchists Confirmed To-day.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Judge Gary this morning overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of the eight anarchists charged with the Haymarket massacre and confirmed the verdict of the jury.

This afternoon when Judge Gary asked the prisoners whether they had anything to offer why sentence should not be passed upom them Spies stepped forward and began reading a prepared speech. While it is not known with any degree of certainty, it is stated that December 3 is the date named for the execution.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.--The weather indications are as follows:

Kentucky, fair weather, stationary temperature.

Ohio, fair weather, and slightly warmer.

Indiana, fair weather and nearly stationary temperature.

Michigan, fair weather, and nearly stationary temperature.

The Georgia Election.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 7.—Gen. John B. Gordon was yesterday elected governor of Georgia, there being no candidate in the field against him. There will not be over fifteen anti-prohibitionists in the legislature, and only one republican in the senate.

FACTS FOR VOTERS.

Hon. Charles McCulloch Makes an Honest and Masterly Statement of County Affairs.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

Nothing more completely baffles trickery and deception than a straightforward statement of facts. I believe that the taxpayers of Allen county and the city of Fort Wayne are honest, intelligent men, not easily bamboozled or deceived. Living in the noonday of time, they read and think and the editors of republican papers in this city will find that the triumphs of truth and reason are greater than those of misrepresentation. Slander cannot make a subject either better or worse and in the long run it acts like a boomerang upon the party that resorts to it. The true and concise statement of our county affairs, made by our county treasurer, is all that is necessary to puncture the false statements of republican newspapers, and it will be published often enough for every man in the county to read it and these pretended reformers will find that "truth is mighty and will prevail."

The statement shows that the commissioners did issue $200,000 of bonds, and they bear five per cent interest, but the premium they brought, of $4,000, brings the rate of interest to about 4¾ per cent or less. They did this to pay off every county order that drew 6 per cent, and to give them money enough to keep the county for the future on a cash basis and at the same time not to stint in the necessary expenses of a thriving county. Several years ago, about the time Mr. Rudisill was auditor, a large number of wooden bridges, on pile foundations, were built within a period of four years. Everyone knows what kind of bridges they were from the one at Rudisill's mill and Muldoon's dam. During the last four years these bridges have had to be rebuilt or repaired at a cost of over $150,000, and in order to verify my statement I give figures of cost and location of bridges, and this will tell why for four years past the expenditures of the county have been heavy:

Wells street bridge, St. Marys river	$ 20,922 51
Paper Mill bridge. St. Joe river	14,490 25
Clinton street bridge, St. Marys river	14,315 73
Reedmiller bridge, St. Marys river	14,061 94
Hursh Mills bridge, St. Joe river	11,892 62
Stellhorn bridge, St. Marys river	8,850 02
Gloyd's mill bridge, Cedar Creek	6,480 70
Three Bridges bridge, Flat Rock	10,531 26
Morton,s bridge, St. Marys river	6,725 00
Abuttments for Bull rapids, Maumee river	6,761 23
Bluffton road bridge	2,892 99
Hobbs bridge, Hobbs run	3,478 43
County line bridge, Little river	4,150 85
Huntington road bridge	2,933 62
Marquette bridge, Flat Rock	2,103 93
Wilson bridge, Madison township	2,116 17
Eel river bridge, Eel river	3,178 48
Shawnee bridge, Shawnee run	2,434 35
Aboit bridge, Aboit river	2,153 03
New Haven bridge repairs	1,783 36
Monroeville bridge	1,556 55
Robinson bridge, Robinson run	1,17- 00
Gaar Creek bridge, stone work	1,370 00
Fitch bridge, iron work	920 00
Spy Run bridge, iron works	698 25
Hoagland bridge, near Hoagland	1,145 92
Broadway bridge, iron	698 25
Leo bridge, repairs	570 85
Nickerson bridge, Nickerson creek	485 00
Canal bridge, near paper mill	251 22
Canal bridge, near brewery	237 48
Canal bridge, near Peters' mill	151 50
Notestine's bridge	165 58
Huntertown bridge	122 20
Lafayette township bridge	135 00
Academy station bridge, repairs	209 00
Monroe township, bridge repairs	158 50
Gaar Creek bridge repairs	125 00
Milan township bridge repairs	105 00
Hamilton Creek bridge	125 00
Scipio township bridge	160 00
Township line bridge	92 00
Mud Run bridge	82 00
Maumee township bridge	70 00
Cedar Creek bridge repairs	70 00
Springfield township bridge repairs	54 00
Painting Rudisill bridge	80 00
Painting Taylor's bridge	25 00
Total	$153,290 77

Some more have yet to be built, but the work is principally done for many years to come. Allen county is the largest county in the state and has more bridges to build and keep up than any other county. She is second in wealth and manufacturing interests and had it not been for the necessary expenses above mentioned she would not have run behind one dollar. THE PEOPLE BELIEVE IN GOOD ROADS, SAFE BRIDGES, WELL MANAGED PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS, LIBERAL EXPENDITURES FOR HOSPITALS AND THE POOR.

The hospital and poor expenses alone from June 1, 1885, to June 1, 1886, were as follows, according to the report of Auditor Griebel:

Poor orders by townships trustees	$22,821 00
Medicine	968 20
Physicians	2,349 37
Railroad fare	271 25
City hospital	3,840 63
St. Joseph hospital	4,077 12
Asylum	6,677 15
Asylum superintendent	800 00
Pest house	33 40
Overseers of poor, township trustees	1,957 00
Total	$43,795 12

Viewing the great improvements and charities we can point with pride to our county and the paltry debt that is shown in the statement of the county treasurer is so straightforward and plainly legitimate that people never give it a moments critical consideration. There has been no stealing. Men like William Briant, Jerome Gloyd, Henry Hartman, Louis Griebel, Willis Maier, John Dalman, Judge Hench, Judge O'Rourke don't steal. Newspapers are the only accusers that dare say they do. Individually not one of the gentlemen who edit those papers would say so. The democratic and republican platforms both agreed that one term in a four year county office was long enough. With that idea prominent the present democratic county ticket was nominated and as Mr. P. S. O'Rourke said to me a few days ago, "it is as good a ticket as was ever nominated in Allen county," and Mr. O'Rourke is a close observer and always says exactly what he means. He also said that he had known Mr. Niezer from his boyhood, and that he was the soul of honor. The laws that regulate the county officials in the banner democratic county of Allen regulates them in republican counties. Allen county's prosperity and growth has been wonderful within the past few years, and the workingmen who are building homes faster than ever all over our beautiful city, still have confidence in our public servants in spite of the attempts of newspaper gentlemen at each election to deceive them.

Respectfully,

CHARLES MCCULLOCH.

ALMOST CRUSHED.

Wm. Ruchel, a Contractor, Run Over by a Lumber Wagon.

Wm. Ruchel, a contractor, was almost killed yesterday. He drove a team of horses through a narrow alley and they pulled a heavy load of lumber. The wheels of the vehicle struck a huge boulder and so tilted the wagon that Ruchel fell off and the wheels passed over his body, breaking two or three of his ribs and injuring him severely about the head and face. The man was in great agony and he had to be carefully carried to his home on Madison street, lest the shook would kill him. He is resting easy to-day, but no predictions are made as to the final result of his ailments. Ruchel had just recovered from the effects of a broken leg and is unfortunate.

A Conductor Killed.

BUFFALO, Oct. 7.—At Belfast this morning, in a dense fog, two freight trains on the Buffalo, New York and Philadelphia railroad collided. Conductor Frank Ingram, of Olean, was in the caboose and was burned to death.

ONCE MORE.

A Strike of the N., P. & O. Railroad in Ohio.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 7.—The situation on the Youngstown division of the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio railroad remains substantially the same as yesterday. The local freight, which is due to leave at 7 o'clock, was abandoned. There are now only two crews out on the division, and it is expected they will join the ranks of the strikers. No trouble is anticipated.

Over one hundred freight brakemen on the Erie have struck for $2 per day, refusing an offer of wages as high as are paid by any competing road. Freight is blockaded in the yards at Cleveland.

SHAMOCKIN, Penn,, Oct. 7.—The miners of the Philadelphia and Reading Peerless colliery struck to-day on account of the scarcity of cars.

There are in New York Assembly N 49, 400 assemblies and 65,000 members. No. 64 has 7,000 pressmen, printers and other workmen connected with printing. Assembly No. 75 has twenty local assemblies and 15,000 members; No. 91 has 5,000 shoemakers. The textile workers are in district No. 136, and represent 5,000. The Plumbers' assembly, No. 85, has 2,500 members. New York sends 100 delegates to Richmond.

The Providence R.I., locomotive shops employ 1,300 men against 500 a year ago.

A punch has just been made that will punch six holes at one time through one-inch thick splices.

The Pullman Palace-car company is turning out $35,000 worth of cars per day. The demand for palace cars is unprecedented.

At Charleston, bricklayers are paid $5: carpenters, $2 to $2.50; plumbers, $2, and common laborers, $1.50. It is a hard place to work.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

A Salvation Army Leader Shoots a Young Man Dead.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The town of Castilo, Wyoming county, is greatly excited over a murder committed there last night by Robert VanBrunt, a member of the Salvation Army. VanBrunt boarded with the family of Simon Roy, and last night found his son, Will Roy, sitting up late with his half sister, Eva. VanBrunt told Eva to go to bed, and she refused. He then drew a revolver and shot young Roy in the head. The murderer was overpowered by a brother of Roy's and handed over to the police. VanBrunt is very exciteable and quick tempered. At the Salvation army meetings he attracted much attention by his excitable ways.

Death of one of Jeff Davis' Captors.

DETROIT, Oct. 7.—Robert L. Reynolds, forty-three years of age, who was a corporal in the Fourth Michigan Cavalry, and one of the special detail under Lieutenant colonel Pritchard, which captured Jeff Davis, May 10, 1865, died at his residence Monday night. Deceased was a member of Farvuahar post, G. A. R.

CHURCH ROBBERS.

The Chapel at Notre Dame Relieved of Its Sacred Vessels.

SOUTH BEND, Oct. 7.—Three burglars entered the church at Notre Dame, early yesterday morning, and stole two gold and silver crowns, set with jewels, which they broke to pieces, with the intention of carrying them to a Chicago "fence." When they reached the city Officers Metz and Kasmierkawitsch captured one of the burglars and secured the booty.

Colonel Steele's Will.

MARION, Oct. 7.—The will of the late Col Asbury Steele has been admitted to probate. After making liberal provision for the maintenance of his widow and the two children of his deceased daughter, the residue and bulk of his property is divided about equally among his four sons, George M., Richard, Asbury and William. The estate is valued at about $25,000. Major George W. Steele is made executor.

A NEW ROLE.

Marcus Rosenfeld, the Song Writer, in Irons for Forgery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Marcus Rosenfeld, author of a number of well known variety songs, among others, "Climbing up the Golden Stairs," pleaded guilty to-day to forging a check for $225 on the Germania bank. The prosecution is inclined to be lenient and Rosenfeld was remanded until his antecedents are inquired into.

Luke Thomas Dead.

RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 7.—Luke Thomas, aged seventy-six, who had just returned home, near Fountain City, from the yearly meeting of Friends, was found dead in the field yesterday. Heart disease is believed to be the cause. The deceased came to this county in 1811, and has attended all the yearly meetings since their commencement, and has always been a prominent and active member.

A New Product.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—Mr. J. Juevenot has sent to the Cotten exchange a bale of ramie and to the Product exchange a bale of jute, which he asserts are the first bales of these products ever made in the United States. He says the ramie will yield $69 profit per acre and jute $56.

Nye and Riley.

The Crawfordsville (Ind.) Argus-News says: "A fine audience greeted Nye and Riley at Music hall last night. The recitations of these two humorists of national reputations were received entusiastically and applauded to the echo. Nye is inimitable, and so is Riley." These famous humorists appear at the Temple, Friday evening, October 22.

The Knights of Labor are holding a great conclave at Richmond. One point they have demonstrated to the south is that all men, no matter of what race, color or creed, have equal rights and liberties as long as they are honorable, law abiding citizens. Mr. T. V. Powderly is a philosopher and if the noble order of workmen heed his advice and do as right to others as they would have others do by them, success will crown their efforts and THE SENTINEL will help them along in any and every way it can.

Don't let neuralgia and rheumatism get rooted in the system, but kill them with Salvation Oil.

Hot drinks should be avoided in cold weather. They have a tendency to weaken the lungs and throat. Take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for coughs.

MIDNIGHT ROBBERY.

The Boot and Shoe Store of Edward Puff Touched for $200.

Edward Puff keeps a boot and shoe store on Hanna street and lives above his place of business, which he further attempted to guard by locking a dog in the store room. In spite of these precautions thieves broke into his place of business between 12 and 1 o'clock last night, and some 75 or 80 pair of boots and shoes, together with other traps, aggregating in value some $200, were stolen. The rascals got in through a rear kitchen window and leisurely put the goods in position to cart them away, which they did nicely and without leaving a thing to lead to their detection. Captain Deihl and Marshal Meyer are working on the robbery, and the only clue they have is the statement of a woman in the neighborhood who claims she heard the mauraders, but could not arouse her slumbering husband.

He was well known throughout this part of the state.

Pertinent Political Points.

[Columbia City Post.]

When Colonel McDonald was out facing ball and shell, his apponent was at home saying "goo" and other sanguinary words.

Hon. Joseph E. McDonald and Hon. R. C. Bell will speak in this place Monday afternoon, Oct. 11. Don't miss it. The same speakers are to be in South Whitley the same evening.

It was painful and humiliating to Captain White to see the crowd walk out by twos and threes as he progressed with his speech.

Editor Keator came out with J. B. White Saturday. Keator is very kind to White, considering that White voted for Lowry, as against Keator, two years ago. This is no campaign lie.

Finding Fault.

It is the easiest thing in the world to find fault. It is easy to say that nobody is honest. It is easy to say that the church is to blame for it. It is easy to say that the church would be all right if the minister would preach and do as he ought. But it isn't easy to look on the best side, to see that there are hundreds of faithful preachers, thousands of honest, sincere men and women, countless acts of justice, charity and humanity which outweigh all the grumbling of the grumblers, so that it is really only the finest dust in the balance. Let us be fair and cheerful. The world is not all wrong. Everybody isn't a rascal. Our neighbors are not trying to cheat us. The church is doing a good work for the world, and even the growlers are not half as disagreeable as they seem.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Wheat, ½@½c lower and heavy, with active speculative business; No. 2 red, October, 83⅛@83½. Corn, without any important change at 44½@45½c. Oats, a shade easier, at 31@40c.

Bad Prairie Fires.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 7.—Destructive prarie fires have been raging in the northwest and southwest of Manitoba, around Marden. Scores of settlers have lost all they possessed, including barns and live stock.

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

HENRY HARTMAN.

THE democratic party invites the minutest envestigation of its affairs in the county. They are square and clean.

READ Charles McCulloch's articles on the county debt. It covers the whole ground and makes everything plain.

THE republicans cannot point to a single law or a single message friendly to the cause of labor emanating from their party.

JUDGE LOWRY'S voice and vote supported every measure introduced into and enacted by congress for the workingmen of the country.

THE democrats are telling the honest truth about the county debt and the rage of the republicans at such a thing in politics is unbounded.

THREE weeks of the campaign have elapsed and the republican press and speakers have not pointed to a single law or word of favor from that party to the cause of labor.

A VOTE for the republican legislative candidates is a vote cast for Monopolist Ben Harrison's return to the United States senate. Does any true democrat want Harrison turned.

REPUBLICANS and their allies are circulating petitions pledging workingmen to vote for legislative candidates who are manacled by the republican party, the sworn enemy of labor.

SENATOR HARRISON'S re-election is the single aim and object of the republican party of Indiana. It is deliberate suicide for a Knight of Labor to cast his ballot for a legislative candidate pledged to vote for the thin blooded, servile monopoly servant, Ben Harrison.

THE Gazette said the other day in a double-leaded article:

John Dalman, esq., county treasurer, is a gentleman whose word is never questioned and who enjoys the respect and esteem of his political opponents.

Elsewhere Mr. Dalman makes a statement that puts dismay into the republican ranks and obliterates the falsehoods of the republican press and speakers.

THE Gazette and News were much alarmed about Judge Edward O'Rourke's participation in politics. Judge Chapin, who aspires to the superior court bench, is out almost every night making republican speeches, but this fact does not disturb the opposition in the least. THE SENTINEL does not believe that politics will necessarily debase a judge, nor will an honest judge debase politics, but we direct attention to the glaring inconsistency of republican boasts of reform.

THE democratic state platform demands the enactment of laws prohibiting the hiring out of convict labor in competition with honest laborers of the country, and insists that the importation of foreign laborers under contract be forever prohibited under stringent penal statutes. The democratic candidates for the legislature in this county, one and all, stand squarely on this platform, and if elected will labor and vote to bring about the desired changes in the law. The democratic party was the first to take an advanced position on this question. It has forced the republicans to take the position they have, which is still much in the rear of the democratic doctrine. In fact the republican platform this year is evasive and a "dodger" in nearly every part.

A HIGH protective tariff on coal affords the coal barons of Pennsylvania an opportunity to say to the 5,000,000 families who use four tons of coal each: We have determined to restrict the production of coal and raise the price $1,50 per ton. Pay the increase or do without coal. The consumers have no other alternative than to pay the increase. The bounties of nrture are thus monopolized, and the people are forced to contribute to protected greed through the infamous legislation fostered and forced on us by Senator Sherman, Senator Harrison and the republican party.

COL. I. B. M'DONALD.

An Old Soldier Pays His Respects to the Hero Candidate for Joint Senator.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

On last Saturday I attended the joint senatorial convention at Columbia City. I was present when T. W. Blair made his speech accepting the nomination as a candidate for joint senator for Allen and Whitley counties. I was more than surprised at the course pursued by Blair. His attacks upon Col. McDonald, the democratic candidate, was outrageous and ungentlemanly under the circumstances. Every body at Columbia City knows full well that when the war broke out Col. McDonald was one of the very first to enlist in Columbia City with Capt. G. W. Stough and Capt, James E. Sargent. We all know that he was a good soldier and a great worker in the army and that he came out in the latter part of 1864, with a good record. If Mr. Blair had asked our people here in Columbia City, he could have learned that Col. McDonald, has for the last thirty-four years, been a great worker and has been the very soul of public improvements in our town and county. He has paid to laboring men of Whitley county better wages and more money, than any other man of his means in the county. That Col. McDonald is a democrat is true, but not an offensive one among his neighbors. More than this I know that for many years he has financially assisted many of his neighbors when in his power so to do. Here men, both democrats and republicans in Columbia City, whom he has saved from bankruptcy by his kindness. When the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway was built, he was one of the very first to cast in his mite to assist in that great enterprise. When the Eel River railway was built he gave $1,000 in cash and paid several hundred dollars as taxes besides. I know further that there are but few church edifices in the county to which he has not contributed his means. In 1870, when the dirty slums, like the man Blair promulgated at Columbia City on Saturday last, were thrown at Col. McDonald, as a candidate for representative, he carried every township in the county. Here is the note from the records in the clerk's office, which I have examined. Hon. A. M. Trumbull, a most excellent gentleman, a man high in his church, the Methodist Episcopal, was his opponent. In that year, 1870, the democratic state ticket head 426 majority in the county, but McDonald and Trumbull had the following vote:

Townships.	McDonald	Trumbull	Maj.
Cleveland	228	119	109
Richland	180	133	47
Troy	68	54	14
Etna	41	35	6
Washington	131	42	98
Columbia	448	120	328
Thorncreek	140	49	91
Jefferson	120	106	14
Smith	125	104	21
Total majority			729

That vote in the county on the state ticket was 426 majority for Col. Nooman Eddy for secretary of state. So it will be seen that such low calumny of the man Blair about Colonel McDonald and his soldier record did not avail anything in the canvas in Whitley county in 1870; so it will be seen that McDonald carried every township in the county, both republican and democratic. This result was brought about by such a course as has been begun by the man Blair in 1886, when a fellow can stand up in a public audience in Columbia City, and insult the good wife and children of an old soldier. This man Blair insults the memory of three gallant brothers, who have their last resting place on southern soil. This fellow Blair and his backers at Columbia City, when they deal in such base lies and insinuations about an old soldier and a good citizens, may expect their reward in the proper manner at the polls in November next.

AN OLD VETERAN.

The First Keen Twinge.

As the season advances, the pains and aches by which rheumatism makes itself known, are experienced after every exposure. It is not claimed that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a specific for rheumatism—we doubt if there is, or can be, such a remedy. But the thousands benefitted by Hood's Sarsaparilla, warrant us in urging others who suffer from rheumatism to take it before the first keen twinge.

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

A Concise and Clear Statement of Allen County's Finances.

Owing to the misrepresentations if not absolute falsehoods of the so called People's Convention managers, concerning the financial condition of Allen county, Chairman McCulloch, of the democratic county committee, addressed a letter to Treasurer John Dalman, requesting an accurate statement of the county's affairs at the close of business, September 30, 1886. Treasurer Dalman's reply is given in full, and explodes most effectually the statements made by these would be bell wethers of the people's, alias republican movement.

Hon. C. McCulloch:

In compliance with your request to furnish a statement to the public, of the condition of the treasury of Allen county, I hereby enclose such statement as shown by the books in my office at the close of business September 30, 1886:

There is one thing nobody ever regrets—that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Its range is so wide, and its good effects so sure, that nothing else, except good nursing, are needed in a great majority of cases. Buy it, try it, and afterwards it will not require any praise from us.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving he child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE FISH HATCHERIES.

THE PERMANENT HEADQUARTERS AT WOOD'S HOLL, MASS.

What the United States is Doing to Encourage Fish Culture—Millions of Young Cod—The Albatross—Macdonald Jars. Professor Baird's Work.

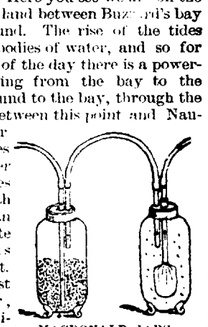

The United States was the first nation to begin the artificial propagation of codfish. It was done by the government fish commission, at the head of which is the accomplished Professor Spencer F. Baird, the "boss," so to speak, of the Smithsonian Institution, at Washington. Fish culture only began to be attended to in a small way here in 1853. It is worth noting that it was not the general government that began the work first, but the separate states. Massachusetts took the lead. Not till 1871 did the general government yield to the advanced spirit in fish culture already moving among the states. In that year the United States commission of fisheries was established by act of congress.

FISH COMMISSION BUILDINGS.

Professor Baird has been at the head from the start. At first attention was given only to the restocking of inland fresh waters with fish. These were nearly depleted of the valuable food fishes with which they teemed when the country was new. Man destroys wherever he touches in nature. Afterward sea fishes were artificially propagated, and the final triumph of our scientific workers has been the reproduction of shad and cod in large numbers.

The work of the commission has grown on its hands till it is now something stupendous. A permanent headquarters for its accommodation has been established. This is at Wood's Holl, Mass., and appears in the illustration. Wood's Holl is situated "at the heel of Cape Cod," as a writer puts it. This point was selected because it is peculiarly adapted to the hatching of codfish. What America would be without its codfish balls, that President Cleveland would be without his horseshoe. It is very important, therefore, is the codfishery of the Atlantic coast. Of the hatching of cod eggs and why Wood's Holl was selected for that purpose, Professor Baird himself says: "The water for such a purpose as this must be perfectly pure sea water and as saline as any in the ocean, nor should it be stagnant. After searching all along the New England coast from Long Island sound to Eastport we decided that right here was the very best place for our station. Here you see we are on the point of the main land between Buzzard's bay and Vineyard sound. The rise of the tides differ in the two bodies of water, and so for the greater part of the day there is a powerful current running from the bay to the sound, or the sound to the bay, through the narrow channel between this point and Naushon island over yonder. Sometimes I think the water boils and bubbles through here with greater fury than through Hell Gate before the rocks were blasted out. It is aerated almost like soda water, and has nosediment. It is perfectly saline, for there is hardly a fresh water spring within five miles of Wood's Holl. We have here a safe harbor, with eighteen feet of water at the dock at low tide. Moreover, we are handy to the railroad station."

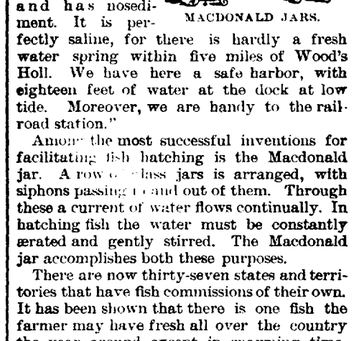

MACDONALD JARS.

Among the most successful inventions for facilitating fish hatching is the Macdonald jar. A row of glass jars is arranged, with siphons passing in and out of them. Through these a current of water flows continually. In hatching fish the water must be constantly aerated and gently stirred. The Macdonald jar accomplishes both these purposes.

There are now thirty-seven states and territories that have fish commissions of their own. It has been shown that there is one fish the farmer may have fresh all over the country the year around, except in spawning time. Unlike the trout, it does not require running waters, but will live and thrive in any pond that is not stagnant. That fish is the German carp. It was introduced into the country first on a large scale by the commission after the Berlin fisheries exposition. At that great show of fish and its appurtenances the United States took first prize, a magnificent cup, presented by the emperor of Germany to Professor Spencer F. Baird. European countries unexpectedly discovered that in all matters pertaining to improved fish culture the United States was the foremost nation in the world.

When the commission began operations it had no boat of its own, not even a catboat or a catamaran to fish with. Little sailing sloops and fishing boats were hired. Then as the work grew, a small steamer, and then another and another were borrowed from the navy department. Now the commission has four steamers, all its own.

HATCHERY.

Codfish hatching is especially attended to at the Wood's Holl station. The cod lays an average of 1,000,000 eggs a year. By nature's methods not over 1 per cent. of these reach maturity, for young cod are a tender bite for hundreds of big and hungry fishes. By Baird's methods not over 50,000 of the whole 1,000,000 are lost. Baird has improved on nature.

In the illustration is seen some of the operations of fish hatching. Upon the table are the Macdonald jars, with the siphon arrangement passing through and through them. To the right are men receiving the millions of fertilized shad eggs, and placing them in the jars. To the left are seen other workmen pouring into cans the young fish already hatched. This is preparatory to shipping. The young fish are called "fry." Batches of them are sent all over the coast, now here, now there, from Oregon, California, Gulf of Mexico to Maine. The intention is to distribute the supply evenly. At these different points the young fish are poured into the coast waters, and left to sink or swim, survive or perish. They usually thrive handsomely.

SOME AMERICAN HOMES.

SPECIMENS OF OLD AND NEW SUBURBAN ARCHITECTURE.

Can There Be Such a Thing as an American Architecture? — Long, Low, Irregular Mansions Fashionable for the Country Now—Colonial Houses.

Many people with high art notions are fond of talking about "American architecture." "I don't believe there ain't no sich pusson," says Mrs. Prig. There can be no such thing as an American architecture. In Louisiana and Alabama a house should be low and broad, with halls as wide as a room, and a large roofed veranda all about it, to make it as cool and shaded as possible. In Minnesota a dwelling will want to be just as compact and tight built as it can be made, for warmth. The walls should be of triple thickness, the windows and door casings doubly lined and joined with the utmost care. Even then the needle-like frost points of a Manitoba blizzard penetrate them and lie in curdling little heaps upon the floor about the base boards. What kinship can there be between houses in which the first object is to keep heat out and those where the chief end of building is to keep it in. As has been remarked once or twice before, this is a big country.

In the old colonial days when only a small strip along the sea was inhabited, there was an architecture—American-Dutch in the neighborhood of New York and American-English in the neighborhood of Boston.

BEN: PERLEY POORE'S HOME.

But the old Dutch style stone houses, with high gables, influenced all the early building. One of the most notable of these old style American houses is the residence of Maj. Ben: Perley Poore. Maj. Poore is so well known as a Washington newspaper man and author that it will surprise many to know that he has a country home at all. That he has, and one of the quaintest, solidest old houses in the country, too. It is at Indian Hill, Mass. Maj. Poore's "fad," as the English would call it, is farming, a strange fancy for a newspaper man. But the veteran major is a fortunate journalist. He is able to throw away some of the money he earns in writing in keeping up a model farm.

There are stone houses, built in somewhat the style of Maj. Poore's, only smaller and single roofed, scattered about New Jersey and New York state that are not less than 250 years old. That ancient iron-like stone which abounds in those parts is as rigid and unchanging as Dutch customs and New England Puritanism. More so, indeed, far more. Knickerbocker ways long since gave place to the American spirit of go ahead, and New England Puritanism is only the shadow of itself. But the old houses in which Puritans sang psalms through their noses and Dutchmen smoked their pipes and drank beer remain.

Very comfortable were the old colonial houses. One strange thing impresses the delver into the architecture of those days. Even the most primitive structures, those built in the pioneer days of the Atlantic division of states, are infinitely more comfortable and durable than the pioneer houses now put up in the prairie states. The latter are rickety and pasteboardlike, like everything else in this makeshift age. The fact does not indicate improvement in the American character.

HALLWAY OF S. G. WARD'S HOME.

Some of the most beautiful of the lately built American country houses in the eastern states have returned somewhat to the old colonial pattern in construction. In the picture we have a hall and stairway from the residence of Samuel Gray Ward, of Lenox, Mass. All this region, in the neighborhood of the Berkshire hills, is picturesque, and men and means and taste have been not slow to avail themselves of its advantages in building sites. Some of the most beautiful rural mansions in America are in this neighborhood.

It is rather a noteworthy fact that while the finest homes in England are hidden away in the heart of the country, the most splendid and attractive homes of America are, without exception, in the suburbs of the large cities. They are not exactly city or country houses, but half and half, as if our rich Americans had not yet quite made up their minds whether they liked the city or country best. That is just the case. The generation of wealthy Americans immediately past clung to the city and detested country life. Now the tide of evolution is setting towards the country. It is a mark of improvement in taste.

HOME OF WILLIAM WALTER PHELPS.

A case in point is at hand. The illustration shows the residence of William Walter Phelps, Esq., at Englewood, N. J. It is "long, low and rambling" enough to suit the fancy of the veriest young lady novelist. The distinguished New Jersey congressman and his family live here all the year when they are at home, in preference to anywhere else. His house, like many other recent mansions, imitates the farmhouse pattern. The "cottages," so-called, of the summer dwellers at our watering places furnish some notable specimens of architecture, though, like many other things American, they are vastly overdone. They are too fine, too large and costly to be inhabited only four months in the year. It is pleasant to feel sure, though, that many of our suburban homes of stone, brick and wood are as handsome and tasteful architecturally as any in the world. With the wealth that is rapidly increasing, the number of these will be constantly added to.

It is a relief to know that the high, narrow, box fashion of house is departing. Moderately low ceilings are far preferable to the lofty slit in the wall which used to be thought the correct thing. When we go one step further and have houses built of plaster on the outside, with red-tiled roofs in ridges, that will be another step toward artistic beauty.

OLIVER AMES.

The Republican Nominee for Governor of Massachusetts.

Oliver Ames, the Republican nominee for governor of Massachusetts, is a son of the late Oakes Ames, the celebrated promoter of the Union Pacific railroad, and possessor of the "little memorandum book" in the Credit-Mobilier investigation. Oakes Ames was a large manufacturer of farming implements, to which the present candidate, Oliver Ames, has succeeded, and to which his father qualified him by putting him to work in the shovel work alongside of learn the business thoroughly. Mr. Ames is now 55 years of age. He has managed his father's business with wonderful ability. He is a large stockholder in a score or more of railroads, and also finds time to devote to politics. He was a member of the state senate in 1880-'81, and he has twice received the nomination of his party for lieutenant governor.

Sudden Changes of temperature, especially at night, just now, are apt to cause indisposition. A little imprudence often brings about serious illness. In such cases POND'S EXTRACT is invaluable. Dr. Preston, of Brooklyn, writes, "I know of no remedy so generally useful in a family." Taken internally and externally, it cools, soothes and cures inflammation of every sort, and controls and subdues all kinds of Hemorrhages. Beware of worthless imitations.

Huntington has a new fire engine for trial.

In the Dear Old Days.

We differ in creed and politics, but we are a unit all the same on the desirableness of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss oft his blessing and ornament, a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balsam will make you look as you did in the dear old days. It is worth trying. It is the only standard 50c article for the hair.

The Co-operative Mining company at Fontanet, Clah county, has failed, with liabilities of $10,000, with insignificant assets. The share-holders numbered fifty, and the failure is due to quarrels among them.

Consumption Can be Cured.

Not by any secret remedy, but by proper healthful exercise and the judicious use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites, containing the healing and strength-giving virtues of these two valuable specifics in their fullest form. Prescribed universally by physicians. Take no other.

The prisoners of the Warsaw jail throttled Sheriff Stevenson Saturday night and after a desperate struggle, in which Mrs. Stevenson was hurt, the crooks all escaped. Sheriff Stevenson has offered $100 each for the apprehension of the rascals.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Salvation Army is about to march on the Logansport hosts of sin.

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders, syringes, astringents or any similar application, because they are all irritating, do not reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.

ANSON HOUGH, of Blackberry, Ills., says he owes his life to Gilmore's Magnetic Elixir. Try it.

MR. A. HIGGINS, of Wyoming, N. Y., says he had the piles for nearly 40 years, and was cured by using Gilmore's Pile specific.

WHY WILL YOU SUFFER from ague and malaria when Gilmore's Aromatic Wine will cure you.

GILMORE'S NEURALGIA CURE is a positive cure for neuralgia in the face, side and stomach.

JOHN H. YATES, of Batavia, N. Y., says:

"I cheerfully commend
Your AROMATIC WINE;
It did new life and vigor send
Through this weak frame of mine.
It did for all my stomach ills
More than the doctor and his pills."

THURSDAY. OCT. 7. 1886.

THE CITY NEWS.

Mrs. R. C. Kelly and daughters returned from Cincinnati yesterday.

Theobald Ruderman paid $11.80 for a big spree at police court this morning.

George Schott, the Barr street druggist, who recently sold out, is going to Kansas City.

Miss Edith, daughter of Justice and Mrs. Daniel Ryan, returned to day from a visit with Ohio friends.

Miss Minnie Doelker, of East Columbia street, fell from a step-ladder, yesterday, and fractured her plump left arm.

Fred Toenges will be married to Miss Emilie Boese, daughter of Fred Boese, at the St. Paul's Lutheran church this evening.

The one-armed and one-legged veterans are receiving the $6 increase of pension granted them by the last democratic congress.

A big pane of glass broke into pieces this morning as the workmen were putting it into the front of Capt. J. B. White's new building.

Mrs. Captain Bradley, of the Grand Central hotel, and Mrs. George Fredericks, of West Lewis street have gone on an extended tour through northern Michigan.

The clock peddlers and promiscuous solicitors are prohibited from plying their vocation without a city license, under a decision of the supreme court rendered Tuesday.

Mr. C. S. Knight, manager of the gas works, will start on a western tour to-night. His son, who took a leave of absence a few weeks ago, is again at home, somewhat wiser.

Yesterday afternoon workmen were engaged in putting in casing at the oil well in the east end. Mr. Bowman, who superintends the work, is very sanguine of striking gas, and that before long.

John N. White and Julia French, Wm. Bruns and Caroline Ertel, Fred Toengers and Eliza Boese, Phillip Krick and Caroline Johnson, Frank E. Reckers and Elizabeth Rehnen have been licensed to wed.

Sub-Contractor Smith is the only man now at work on Little River ditch. J. W. Gray abandoned his work and it is said Mike Baltes will relinquish his subcontract. The ditch promoters held a meeting to-day to look into the bonds of the contractors.

Building permits have been granted to O. B. Fitch to erect an addition to his house on Calhoun street, opposite Butler street, to cost $150 and to J. H. Ruhking, to build a barn on lot 118, Lewis' addition, to cost $100.

"Can you tell me anything about the postage stamp flirtation?" asks a subscriber. "Certainly," was the answer. "When he writes to you and puts two stamps on a one-stamp letter, he loves you. When he puts a one stamp on a two-center letter, he likes you; when he leaves off the stamp altogether, he loves another."

Chicagos chances for flying the pennant this year, are not so good as they were a week ago. In yesterday's games Chicago was defeated by New York and Detroit was victorious over Washington. Chicago has yet three games to play with Boston, and Detroit four games with Philadelphia, all to be played this week, as the season closes on the 9th. The records at the end of yesterday's games was, Chicago won 88, lost 33; Detroit won 86, lost 34.

C. M. Hayes, who on October 1 stepped into the position of assistant general manager of the Wabash, had been private secretary to Col. A. A. Talmage for a period of years extending through that gentleman's management of both the Missouri Pacific and Wabash roads, and is one of the most efficient and popular young railroad men in the west. His appointment gives general satisfaction in railroad circles, and congratulations have flowed in upon him from all quarters. He is probably the youngest man in the country occupying so high and important a position, he being under thirty years of age.

Almost every liquor dealer in the city has received a circular asking them to take no part in politics. The circular no doubt originated with the republican state central committee and seeks to leave the impression that in case the republicans carry the legislature that no legislation detrimental to their interests will be adopted. What a change has come over the republicans. It has only been a few weeks since the republicans were denouncing the liquor league and claiming that it was an ally of the democratic party. Now they ask that dealers in liquors take no part in politics and half way promise that their business shall in no wise be disturbed if the republicans carry the legislature. This is another explanation of the fearfully and wonderfully made platform.

The Fort Wayne Turnverein will elect officers to-night.

Lemuel C. Paine sues Jacob M. Fredrickson for $250. Randall & Vesey filed the suit.

Amanda Ann Rupert sues Catherine Stevens and others to quiet title to real estate. W. G. Colerick filed the suit.

Judge O'Rourke gave Jennie Fletcher a judgment for $117.70 against Ruth Wells. This case questioned John A. Scott's bookkeeping.

The promoters of the gas well, in the eastern part of the city, can sell the well to the White wheel works for $600, even if gas is not discovered.

The mission at the Cathedral calls out an unprecedented attendance to every service and the Passionist fathers are preaching eloquent sermons every day.

Hon. J. H. Rice, the popular auditor of state, was in the city to-day. He tells us he will deliver the office over to our esteemed townsman, Major Munson, in due time.

Charles Krudop celebrated the twenty-first anniversary of his birth yesterday and his young friends tendered him a serenade.

Mrs. Louisa Dalman, mother of James Flinn, received word this morning that the remains would arrive sometime Friday. Further notice of the funeral will be given.

Miss Alice Johnson, aged twenty-two years, died yesterday of cholera morbus, and her funeral will occur to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the family home at No. 18 Baker street. The young lady had been ill but two days.

J. P. Stapleford some time ago purchased four horses and two oil tank tank wagons from a stranger. The Bloomfield oil company held chattel mortgages on the property and this morning replevied them. Mr. Stapleford gave bond for the amount involved.

Charles H. Collins, a Pittsburg brakeman, was struck by the overhead bridge at Valparaiso last night and knocked senseless. He lives at 198 East Lewis street, and was taken there this morning. Dr. Stemen predicts his recovery, although he still lies in a semi-conscious condition.

The controversy between the Wabash and St. Louis, Kansas City and Colorado railroad over the right of the latter to an entrance to St. Louis over the Wabash tracks, has been decided in favor of the Colorado line (Harry Drew's railroad), the master holding that by payment of trackage it is entitled to the use of the road.

A Washington special says, that in an interview Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton said: "The president is going to turn every man out of office who has violated the civil service law, or disregarded the order pertaining to participating in politics." This was said during a conversation respecting the attitude of Indiana democrats toward civil service reform.

It is the intention of President Roberts, of the Pennsylvania, to start west some time this week for the purpose of making his annual trip of inspection over the company's lines. Meanwhile considerable pressure has been brought to bear to induce him to postpone it so that a meeting can be brought about among the trunk line presidents. Mr. Roberts was in Fort Wayne just about a year ago.

Many a child goes astray, not because there is a grievance at home, but simply because home lacks sunshine. A child needs smiles as much as the flowers need sunbeams. Children look little beyond the present moment. If a thing pleases, they are apt to seek it; if it displeases they are apt to avoid it. If home is a place where faces are sour and words harsh, and fault-finding is ever in the ascendant, they will spend as many hours as possible elsewhere.

McNish, Johnson & Slavin gave an excellent performance at the opera house last evening to the largest audience that ever assembled in the Temple, standing room being at a premium long before 8 o'clock. This company gives a refined minstrel show, just as they advertise, and while some of their gags are aged there is much new and original fun. Bob Slavin is by far the funniest man in the company. He is a funnier man than George Wilson. One of the best features of the performance was that presented by Ranza and Arno, the gymnasts. They gave a marvelous and extremely funny performance. Mr. Frank Howard, the popular composer and sweet singer, gave his new song, "Sweet Heather Bells," and was rewarded with an encore, as were others of the party. It is estimated that 200 people were unable to get into the opera house last night.

J. M. McKinnie, a carpenter employed in constructing a new bridge on the Nickel Plate road across the St. Mary's river, near Orff's mill, was struck by a falling truss or beam of timber at 1 o'clock this morning while at work with the night gang. His skull was crushed and he died almost instantly. McKinnie's age was about thirty. He was unmarried. His mother resides at Geneva, Pennsylvania. His body lies at Peltier's morgue to await instructions from his home.

Mr. M. H. Moynihan, of Asheville, N. C., is visiting relatives in the city for a few weeks.

Rev. Father Romer, of this city, was in Michigan City yesterday, visiting his former parishioners and friends.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana have made two changes in the time of trains, necessitating the printing of a new time card.

C. R. Gardner's "Zozo," Oct. 11 and 12, Alma LeGrand in "Patent Rights," Oct. 15 and 16, are the coming attractions at the Temple.

There were three big democratic meetings in the country last night, and everywhere the speakers and candidates met great crowds of people.

Hon. T. P. Keator is now making a ten day campaign tour of the state. During his absence W. S. Cooper will do the local work on the Gazette.

The funeral of the late Hon. B. D. Miner will take place from his residence, No. 64 Douglass avenue, Saturday next at 2 p. m. He leaves a wife and seven children to survive him.

Eastern papers report that good progress is being made in the reorganization of the "poor old Wabash road," and that by Jan. 1 it will be in shape to take out of the hands of the receivers.

The following new suits have been filed before Judge O'Rourke: Lemuel C. Paine vs. Jacob M. Frederickson. Foreclosure. Demand, $2,500. Sophia Brewer vs. Anna M. Archer et al. To reform deed and quiet title. Bloomfield Oil company vs. Lucian P. Stapleford. Replevin. Demand, $500.

H. F. Houghton, trainmaster of the Detroit division of the Wabash, with headquarters at Butler, has resigned to accept the position of superintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio road. He is succeeded by W. C. Heth, chief train dispatcher at Peru, who in turn is succeeded by R. V. Dutcher.

Chaska's Opening.

A SENTINEL representative visited the grand cloak opening at Chaska's yesterday. These openings are eagerly looked for by the ladies of Fort Wayne as the seasons come, and the one yesterday was no exception. The attendance, remarked Mr. Chaska, is larger than in any other previous occasion, while the display also is more varied, consisting of a large and select line of short wraps, walking jackets, raglans, seal plush coats and newmarkets, an exhibition equal to any Chicago house. Among the long list of sales made yesterday was one for a $110 cloak, considered to be the finest cloak ever shown in this city. The opening will continue until Friday evening, and to each customer Mr. Chaska presents a hand mirror.

A GRAND SUCCESS.

Vast Numbers of Ladies Visit Mergentheim's Grand Millinery and Cloak Opening Yesterday.

Yesterday was the first day of Mergentheim's opening and from early morning crowds of ladies visited the scene of hats and bonnets. The display this fall is unusually large, embracing the latest styles and shapes in ladies head wear, and eliciting many expressions of delight from the visitors. In the cloak department the display was equally fine. The opening will continue until Friday evening and a cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies who have not visited it, to call.

HOOSIER POLITICS.

How the Leaders Talk and What is Said In the State.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 7.—The next lieutenant governor was in town yesterday, for both republican and democratic candidates were here. Judge J. C. Nelson, democratic candidate, passed through on a campaigning tour. He says that for an off year the interest in the campaign is unusually wide-spread, and that all of the candidates seem to be having good audiences. He looks upon democratic prospects as giving almost certain promise of success, and thinks the democrats will gain one congressman. Dr. H. D. Hattery, he says is making a popular race against Owen in the tenth district, with prospects of defeating him.

Colonel R. S. Robertson, the republican candidate for lieutenant governor, was in the city. To a News reporter he said: "I feel much encouraged by the canvass I have made thus far. I find everywhere among republicans that faith will bring works, and that is what we want. In a few districts there is a seeming apathy, but I think this will give place to energetic measures before long. We are doing our missionary work in this direction. If we can get the full republican vote out, we will carry the state by a good majority."

ROCHESTER, Ind., Oct. 7.—Gov. Gray addressed the citizens of Fulton county. He desired it, however, to be distinctly understood that he is not a candidate for senator, yet, if perchance, the general assembly this winter makes the choice as between the governor and Joseph E. McDonald, he will accept the honor.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Oct. 7.—Senator Joseph E. McDonald and William R. Myers addressed the democrats here last night. They were greeted by a large audience. The senator discussed the tariff and liquor questions mainly, and indorsed Cleveland's administration, which met the popular expectation.

SALEM, Ind., Oct. 7.—Hon. R. M. Miers and Charles Munson, candidate for secretary and auditor of state, spoke at Warriner's hall to a large democratic audience. While Mr. Munson's remarks were not extended, they were to the point and well appreciated, making a fine impression on the audience. Judge Miers made a fine democratic speech, striking straight out from the shoulder, showing democratic economy and good management of public affairs since their acendency into power, while he showed up republican inconsistency.

Wabash Bonds Sold.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 7.—S. A. Keane & Co., bankers of Chicago, were the successful bidders for $10,000 gravel road bonds issued by the county. Their bid was the highest among eleven, being $1,361, or a premium of 3 6-10 per cent.

AFTER THE RASCALS.

The Former Buckeye Penitentiary Officials Indicted.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—The Franklin county grand jury, which has been investigating the alleged stealing by officials under the former administrations of the Ohio penitentiary, made a report this morning, but found only indictments in connection with the prison management. One is against B. H. Marriott, ex-deputy warden, for bribery; one against the ex-superintendent of the state shops, Perry, for embezzlement. There was no indictment in the election forgery case.

An Ocean Steamer Missing.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Anchor line steamship Anchoria, had not been heard from up to a late hour last night. She sailed from Queenstown September 26, and is to-day twenty-one days out.

CHICAGO NEWS.

Two Children Perish in a Burning Building.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Two children, a boy aged ten years, and his sister, three years younger, were burned to death in No. 125 Warren avenue, by a fire which broke out about 2:25 this morning in the house of George Davis. The occupant of the house had not been aroused at the time the discovery of the fire was made, and such as saved themselves were obliged to jump from the upper story windows. The mother of the children burned was very seriously, if not fatally injured, and had one arm broken in several places.

Although no definite information has been given out by the packers' committee of arrangements, it is currently reported the employes will be formally notified on Saturday of the intention to return to the ten hour system Monday, and if they fail to return to work on the new scale the houses will be closed.

A policeman at the Northwestern depot late last evening observed two small boys, neither over six years of age, standing at the gate alone, carrying between them, a large satchel. When the officer approached them, one ran away while the other stood his ground. When closely questioned the little urchin burst out crying and said he was going west to herd cattle. He was taken to the police station, where he admitted his name was John Frickson, and that he had run away from his home, 206 Sedgewick street. The valise was opened and found to contain only a vest, two large calibre revolvers, and a plentiful stock of cakes and pies. He said the other boy's name was John Dunn, and that he had stolen $25 from his father and two revolvers from his brother, and they were going to start a ranch in Idaho. He had also two through tickets for St. Paul, Minn. The child was locked up and the father sent for.

Notices were this morning posted in all the stock yards packing houses to the effect that on and after next Monday the hours of work would be ten hours, instead of eight, as is now the rule.

Fire Record.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 7.—A fire in the Union Furniture company's establishment, caused the total loss of $60,000. Insurance $22,500.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—In the fire in the fourth store factory on Bayard street this morning workmen jumped to the roof of the lower building. One women fell to the street and was killed.

FOREIGN NEWS.

A King is Murdered by His Subjects—The News Abroad.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Advices from St. Louis, Senegal, state that King Trarzas has been murdered by his nephew.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Royal Inniskilling fusiliers, stationed at Aldershot, went on a riot last night in resistance to a draft for service in Africa. A savage fight ensued and the Irishmen were only subdued after a number of the soldiers and police were wounded. Forty rioters were arrested.

SOFIA, Oct. 7.—The government has notified the foreign consuls at Sofia, that General Kaulbars, through the Russian consul at Rutchuk, ordered the military commander there to release the political conspirators in his custody, threatening to hold him responsible if he disobeyed, and promising as a reward for his compliance, promotion to the rank of commander general when the Russians arrive, and informing him that the penalty of refusal would be a reduction to the ranks. The commander informed the troops under his command that he had received and declined the command, and the soldiers applauded his conduct.

THEY MUST HANG.

The Death Verdict Against Chicago Anarchists Confirmed To-day.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Judge Gary this morning overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of the eight anarchists charged with the Haymarket massacre and confirmed the verdict of the jury.

This afternoon when Judge Gary asked the prisoners whether they had anything to offer why sentence should not be passed upon them Spies stepped forward and began reading a prepared speech. While it is not known with any degree of certainty, it is stated that December 3 is the date named for the execution.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The weather indications are as follows:

Kentucky, fair weather, stationary temperature.

Ohio, fair weather, and slightly warmer.

Indiana, fair weather and nearly stationary temperature.

Michigan, fair weather, and nearly stationary temperature.

The Georgia Election.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 7.—Gen. John B. Gordon was yesterday elected governor of Georgia, there being no candidate in the field against him. There will not be over fifteen anti-prohibitionists in the legislature, and only one republican in the senate.

FACTS FOR VOTERS.

Hon. Charles McCulloch Makes an Honest and Masterly Statement of County Affairs.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

Nothing more completely baffles trickery and deception than a straightforward statement of facts. I believe that the taxpayers of Allen county and the city of Fort Wayne are honest, intelligent men, not easily bamboozled or deceived. Living in the noonday of time, they read and think and the editors of republican papers in this city will find that the triumphs of truth and reason are greater than those of misrepresentation. Slander cannot make a subject either better or worse and in the long run it acts like a boomerang upon the party that resorts to it. The true and concise statement of our county affairs, made by our county treasurer, is all that is necessary to puncture the false statements of republican newspapers, and it will be published often enough for every man in the county to read it and these pretended reformers will find that "truth is mighty and will prevail."

The statement shows that the commissioners did issue $200,000 of bonds, and they bear five per cent interest, but the premium they brought, of $4,000, brings the rate of interest to about 4½ per cent or less. They did this to pay off every county order that drew 6 per cent, and to give them money enough to keep the county for the future on a cash basis and at the same time not to stint in the necessary expenses of a thriving county. Several years ago, about the time Mr. Rudisill was auditor, a large number of wooden bridges, on pile foundations, were built within a period of four years. Everyone knows what kind of bridges they were from the one at Rudisill's mill and Muldoon's dam. During the last four years those bridges have had to be rebuilt or repaired at a cost of over $150,000, and in order to verify my statement I give figures of cost and location of bridges, and this will tell why for four years past the expenditures of the county have been heavy:

Wells street bridge, St. Marys river	$20,022 51
Paper Mill bridge, St. Joe river	14,491 25
Clinton street bridge, St. Marys river	14,203 73
Rueckmiller bridge, St. Marys river	14,061 04
Hursh Mills bridge, St. Joe river	11,892 02
Stellhorn bridge, St. Marys river	4,870 02
Gloyd's mill bridge, Cedar Creek	6,480 70
Three Bridges bridge, Flat Rock	10,531 26
Morton's bridge, St. Marys river	6,725 60
Abutments for Bull rapids, Maumee river	6,761 21
Bluffton road bridge	2,992 90
Hobbs bridge, Hobbs run	3,478 43
County line bridge, Little river	4,150 85
Huntington road bridge	2,063 62
Marquette bridge, Flat Rock	2,103 98
Wilson bridge, Madison township	2,116 17
Eel river bridge, Eel river	3,176 48
Shawnee bridge, Shawnee run	2,431 35
Abolt bridge, Abolt river	2,153 03
New Haven bridge repairs	1,783 36
Monroeville bridge	1,556 75
Robinson bridge, Robinson run	1,174 00
Cedar Creek bridge, stone work	1,800 00
Fitch bridge, iron work	220 00
Spy Run bridge, iron works	699 25
Hoagland bridge, near Hoagland	1,145 92
Broadway bridge, iron	693 25
Leo bridge, repairs	570 85
Nickerson bridge, Nickerson creek	455 00
Canal bridge, near paper mill	251 22
Canal bridge, near brewery	237 48
Canal bridge, near Peters' mill	151 50
Nolestine's bridge	165 54
Huntertown bridge	122 90
Lafayette township bridge	135 00
Academy station bridge, repairs	250 00
Monroe township, bridge repairs	153 50
Cedar Creek bridge repairs	125 00
Milan township bridge repairs	105 00
Hamilton Creek bridge	126 00
Scipio township bridge	100 00
Township line bridge	92 00
Mud Run bridge	82 00
Maumee township bridge	70 00
Cedar Creek bridge repairs	70 00
Springfield township bridge repairs	54 00
Painting Rudisill bridge	50 00
Painting Taylor's bridge	25 00
Total	$153,290 77

Some more have yet to be built, but the work is principally done for many years to come. Allen county is the largest county in the state and has more bridges to build and keep up than any other county. She is second in wealth and manufacturing interests and had it not been for the necessary expenses above mentioned she would not have run behind one dollar. THE PEOPLE BELIEVE IN GOOD ROADS, SAFE BRIDGES, WELL MANAGED PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS, LIBERAL EXPENDITURES FOR HOSPITALS AND THE POOR.

The hospital and poor expenses alone from June 1, 1885, to June 1, 1886, were as follows, according to the report of Auditor Griebel:

Poor orders by townships trustees	$22,821 00
Medicine	968 20
Physicians	2,359 37
Railroad fare	271 25
City hospital	3,840 81
St. Joseph hospital	4,077 12
Asylum	6,877 15
Asylum superintendent	500 00
Pest house	31 40
Overseers of poor, township trustees	1,057 00
Total	$43,795 12

Viewing the great improvements and charities we can point with pride to our county and the paltry debt that is shown in the statement of the county treasurer is so straightforward and plainly legitimate that people never give it a moments critical consideration. There has been no stealing. Men like William Briant, Jerome Gloyd, Henry Hartman, Louis Griebel, Willis Maier, John Dalman, Judge Hench, Judge O'Rourke don't steal. Newspapers are the only accusers that dare say they do. Individually not one of the gentlemen who edit those papers would say so. The democratic and republican platforms both agreed that one term in a four year county office was long enough. With that idea prominent the present democratic county ticket was nominated and as Mr. P. S. O'Rourke said to me a few days ago, "it is as good a ticket as was ever nominated in Allen county," and Mr. O'Rourke is a close observer and always says exactly what he means. He also said that he had known Mr. Niezer from his boyhood, and that he was the soul of honor. The laws that regulate the county officials in the banner democratic county of Allen regulates them in republican counties. Allen county's prosperity and growth has been wonderful within the past few years, and the workingmen who are building homes faster than ever all over our beautiful city, still have confidence in our public servants in spite of the attempts of newspaper gentlemen at each election to deceive them.

Respectfully,
CHARLES McCULLOCH.

ALMOST CRUSHED.

Wm. Ruchel, a Contractor, Run Over by a Lumber Wagon.

Wm. Ruchel, a contractor, was almost killed yesterday. He drove a team of horses through a narrow alley and they pulled a heavy load of lumber. The wheels of the vehicle struck a huge boulder and so tilted the wagon that Ruchel fell off and the wheels passed over his body, breaking two or three of his ribs and injuring him severely about the head and face. The man was in great agony and he had to be carefully carried to his home on Madison street, lest the shock would kill him. He is resting easy to-day, but no predictions are made as to the final result of his ailments. Ruchel had just recovered from the effects of a broken leg and is unfortunate.

A Conductor Killed.

BUFFALO, Oct. 7.—At Belfast this morning, in a dense fog, two freight trains on the Buffalo, New York and Philadelphia railroad collided. Conductor Frank Ingram, of Olean, was in the caboose and was burned to death.

ONCE MORE.

A Strike of the N., P. & O. Railroad in Ohio.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 7.—The situation on the Youngstown division of the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio railroad remains substantially the same as yesterday. The local freight, which is due to leave at 7 o'clock, was abandoned. There are now only two crews out on the division, and it is expected they will join the ranks of the strikers. No trouble is anticipated.

Over one hundred freight brakemen on the Erie have struck for $2 per day, refusing an offer of wages as nigh as are paid by any competing road. Freight is blockaded in the yards at Cleveland.

SHAMOKIN, Penn., Oct. 7.—The miners of the Philadelphia and Reading Peerless colliery struck to-day on account of the scarcity of cars.

There are in New York Assembly N 49, 400 assemblies and 65,000 members, No. 64 has 7,000 pressmen, printers and other workmen connected with printing. Assembly No. 75 has twenty local assemblies and 15,000 members; No. 91 has 5,000 shoemakers. The textile workers are in district No. 136, and represent 5,000. The Plumbers' assembly, No. 85, has 2,500 members. New York sends 100 delegates to Richmond.

The Providence R.I., locomotive shops employ 1,300 men against 500 a year ago.

A punch has just been made that will punch six holes at one time through one-inch thick splices.

The Pullman Palace-car company is turning out $15,000 worth of cars per day. The demand for palace cars is unprecedented.

At Charleston, bricklayers are paid $5: carpenters, $2 to $2.50; plumbers, $2, and common laborers, $1.50. It is a hard place to work.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

A Salvation Army Leader Shoots a Young Man Dead.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The town of Castile, Wyoming county, is greatly excited over a murder committed there last night by Robert VanBrunt, a member of the Salvation Army. VanBrunt boarded with the family of Simon Roy, and last night found his son, Will Roy, sitting up late with his half sister, Eva. VanBrunt told Eva to go to bed, and she refused. He then drew a revolver and shot young Roy in the head. The murderer was overpowered by a brother of Roy's and handed over to the police. VanBrunt is very excitable and quick tempered. At the Salvation army meetings he attracted much attention by his excitable ways.

Death of one of Jeff Davis' Captors.

DETROIT, Oct. 7.—Robert L. Reynolds, forty-three years of age, who was a corporal in the Fourth Michigan Cavalry, and one of the special detail under Lieutenant colonel Pritchard, which captured Jeff Davis, May 10, 1865, died at his residence Monday night. Deceased was a member of Farquahar post, G. A. R.

CHURCH ROBBERS.

The Chapel at Notre Dame Relieved of Its Sacred Vessels.

SOUTH BEND, Oct. 7. Three burglars entered the church at Notre Dame, early yesterday morning, and stole two gold and silver crowns, set with jewels, which they broke to pieces, with the intention of carrying them to a Chicago "fence." When they reached the city Officers Metz and Kasmierkawitsch captured one of the burglars and secured the booty.

Colonel Steele's Will.

MARION, Oct. 7.—The will of the late Col Asbury Steele has been admitted to probate. After making liberal provision for the maintenance of his widow and the two children of his deceased daughter, the residue and bulk of his property is divided about equally among his four sons, George M., Richard, Asbury and William. The estate is valued at about $25,000. Major George W. Steele is made executor.

A NEW ROLE.

Marcus Rosenfeld, the Song Writer, in Irons for Forgery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Marcus Rosenfeld, author of a number of well known variety songs, among others, "Climbing up the Golden Stairs," pleaded guilty to-day to forging a check for $225 on the Germania bank. The prosecution is inclined to be lenient and Rosenfeld was remanded until his antecedents are inquired into.

Luke Thomas Dead.

RICHMOND, Ind., Oct. 7.—Luke Thomas, aged seventy-six, who had just returned home, near Fountain City, from the yearly meeting of Friends, was found dead in the field yesterday. Heart disease is believed to be the cause. The deceased came to this county in 1811, and has attended all the yearly meetings since their commencement, and has always been a prominent and active member.

A New Product.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—Mr. J. Juvenont has sent to the Cotton exchange a bale of ramie and to the Produce exchange a bale of jute, which he asserts are the first bales of these products ever made in the United States. He says the ramie will yield $89 profit per acre and jute $56.

Nye and Riley.

The Crawfordsville (Ind.) Argus-News says: "A fine audience greeted Nye and Riley at Music hall last night. The recitations of these two humorists of national reputations were received enthusiastically and applauded to the echo. Nye is inimitable, and so is Riley." These famous humorists appear at the Temple, Friday evening, October 22.

The Knights of Labor are holding a great conclave at Richmond. One point they have demonstrated to the south is that all men, no matter of what race, color or creed, have equal rights and liberties as long as they are honorable, law abiding citizens. Mr. T. V. Powderly is a philosopher and if the noble order of workmen heed his advice and do as right to others as they would have others do by them, success will crown their efforts and THE SENTINEL will help them along in any and every way it can.

Don't let neuralgia and rheumatism get rooted in the system, but kill them with Salvation Oil.

Hot drinks should be avoided in cold weather. They have a tendency to weaken the lungs and throat. Take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for coughs.

MIDNIGHT ROBBERY.

The Boot and Shoe Store of Edward Puff Touched for $200.

Edward Puff keeps a boot and shoe store on Hanna street and lives above his place of business, which he further attempted to guard by locking a dog in the store room. In spite of these precautions thieves broke into his place of business between 12 and 1 o'clock last night, and some 75 or 80 pair of boots and shoes, together with other traps, aggregating in value some $200, were stolen. The rascals got in through a rear kitchen window and leisurely put the goods in position to cart them away, which they did nicely and without leaving a thing to lead to their detection. Captain Deihl and Marshal Meyer are working on the robbery, and the only clue they have is the statement of a woman in the neighborhood who claims she heard the marauders, but could not arouse her slumbering husband.

He was well known throughout this part of the state.

Pertinent Political Points.

[Columbia City Post.]

When Colonel McDonald was out facing ball and shell, his appponent was at home saying "goo" and other sanguinary words.

Hon. Joseph E. McDonald and Hon. R. C. Bell will speak in this place Monday afternoon, Oct. 11. Don't miss it. The same speakers are to be in South Whitley the same evening.

It was painful and humiliating to Captain White to see the crowd walk out by twos and threes as he progressed with his speech.

Editor Keator came out with J. B. White Saturday. Keator is very kind to White, considering that White voted for Lowry, as against Keator, two years ago. This is no campaign lie.

Finding Fault.

It is the easiest thing in the world to find fault. It is easy to say that nobody is honest. It is easy to say that the church is to blame for it. It is easy to say that the church would be all right if the minister would preach and do as he ought. But it isn't easy to look on the best side, to see that there are hundreds of faithful preachers, thousands of honest, sincere men and women, countless acts of justice, charity and humanity which outweigh all the grumbling of the grumblers, so that it is really only the finest dust in the balance. Let us be fair and cheerful. The world is not all wrong. Everybody isn't a rascal. Our neighbors are not trying to cheat us. The church is doing a good work for the world, and even the growlers are not half as disagreeable as they seem.

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

HENRY HARTMAN.

THE democratic party invites the minutest envestigation of its affairs in the county. They are square and clean.

READ Charles McCulloch's articles on the county debt. It covers the whole ground and makes everything plain.

THE republicans cannot point to a single law or a single message friendly to the cause of labor emanating from their party.

JUDGE LOWRY'S voice and vote supported every measure introduced into and enacted by congress for the workingmen of the country.

THE democrats are telling the honest truth about the county debt and the rage of the republicans at such a thing in politics is unbounded.

THREE weeks of the campaign have elapsed and the republican press and speakers have not pointed to a single law or word of favor from that party to the cause of labor.

A VOTE for the republican legislative candidates is a vote cast for Monopolist Ben Harrison's return to the United States senate. Does any true democrat want Harrison turned.

REPUBLICANS and their allies are circulating petitions pledging workingmen to vote for legislative candidates who are manacled by the republican party, the sworn enemy of labor.

SENATOR HARRISON'S re-election is the single aim and object of the republican party of Indiana. It is deliberate suicide for a Knight of Labor to cast his ballot for a legislative candidate pledged to vote for the thin blooded, servile monopoly servant, Ben Harrison.

THE Gazette said the other day in a double-leaded article:

John Dalman, esq., county treasurer, is a gentleman whose word is never questioned and who enjoys the respect and esteem of his political opponents.

Elsewhere Mr. Dalman makes a statement that puts dismay into the republican ranks and obliterates the falsehoods of the republican press and speakers.

THE Gazette and News were much alarmed about Judge Edward O'Rourke's participation in politics. Judge Chapin, who aspires to the superior court bench, is out almost every night making republican speeches, but this fact does not disturb the opposition in the least. THE SENTINEL does not believe that politics will necessarily debase a judge, nor will an honest judge debase politics, but we direct attention to the glaring inconsistency of republican boasts of reform.

THE democratic state platform demands the enactment of laws prohibiting the hiring out of convict labor in competition with honest laborers of the country, and insists that the importation of foreign laborers under contract be forever prohibited under stringent penal statutes. The democratic candidates for the legislature in this county, one and all, stand squarely on this platform, and if elected will labor and vote to bring about the desired changes in the law. The democratic party was the first to take an advanced position on this question. It has forced the republicans to take the position they have, which is still much in the rear of the democratic doctrine. In fact the republican platform this year is evasive and a "dodger" in nearly every part.

A MOST protective tariff on coal affords the coal barons of Pennsylvania an opportunity to say to the 5,000,000 families who use four tons of coal each: We have determined to restrict the production of coal and raise the price $1,50 per ton. Pay the increase or do without coal. The consumers have no other alternative than to pay the increase. The bounties of nature are thus monopolized, and the people are forced to contribute to protected greed through the infamous legislation fostered and forced on us by Senator Sherman, Senator Harrison and the republican party.

COL. I. B. M'DONALD.

An Old Soldier Pays His Respects to the Hero Candidate for Joint Senator.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

On last Saturday I attended the joint senatorial convention at Columbia City. I was present when T. W. Blair made his speech accepting the nomination as a candidate for joint senator for Allen and Whitley counties. I was more than surprised at the course pursued by Blair. His attacks upon Col. McDonald, the democratic candidate, was outrageous and ungentlemanly under the circumstances. Every body at Columbia City knows full well that when the war broke out Col. McDonald was one of the very first to enlist in Columbia City with Capt. G. W. Stough and Capt. James E. Sargent. We all know that he was a good soldier and a great worker in the army and that he came out in the latter part of 1864, with a good record. If Mr. Blair had asked our people here in Columbia City, he could have learned that Col. McDonald, has for the last thirty-four years, been a great worker and has been the very soul of public improvements in our town and county. He has paid to laboring men of Whitley county better wages and more money, than any other man of his means in the county. That Col. McDonald in a democrat is true, but not an offensive one among his neighbors. More than this I know that for many years he has financially assisted many of his neighbors when in his power so to do. Here men, both democrats and republicans in Columbia City, whom he has saved from bankruptcy by his kindness. When the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway was built, he was one of the very first to cast in his mite to assist in that great enterprise. When the Eel River railway was built he gave $1,000 in cash and paid several hundred dollars as taxes besides. I know further that there are but few church edifices in the county to which he has not contributed his means. In 1870, when the dirty slums, like the man Blair promulgated at Columbia City on Saturday last, were thrown at Col. McDonald, as a candidate for representative, he carried every township in the county. Here is the note from the records in the clerk's office, which I have examined. Hon. A. M. Trumbull, a most excellent gentleman, a man high in his church, the Methodist Episcopal, was his opponent. In that year, 1870, the democratic state ticket had 426 majority in the county, but McDonald and Trumbull had the following vote:

Townships.	McDonald	Trumbull	Maj.
Cleveland	228	119	109
Richland	180	133	47
Troy	68	54	14
Etna	41	35	6
Washington	131	42	98
Columbia	448	120	328
Thorncreek	140	49	91
Jefferson	120	106	14
Smith	125	104	21
Total majority			729

That vote in the county on the state ticket was 426 majority for Col. Nooman Eddy for secretary of state. So it will be seen that such low calumny of the man Blair about Colonel McDonald and his soldier record did not avail anything in the canvas in Whitley county in 1870; so it will be seen that McDonald carried every township in the county, both republican and democratic. This result was brought about by such a course as has been begun by the man Blair in 1886, when a fellow can stand up in a public audience in Columbia City, and insult the good wife and children of an old soldier. This man Blair insults the memory of three gallant brothers, who have their last resting place on southern soil. This fellow Blair and his backers at Columbia City, when they deal in such base lies and insinuations about an old soldier and a good citizens, may expect their reward in the proper manner at the polls in November next.

AN OLD VETERAN,

The First Keen Twinge.

As the season advances, the pains and aches by which rheumatism makes itself known, are experienced after every exposure. It is not claimed that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a specific for rheumatism—we doubt if there is, or can be, such a remedy. But the thousands benefitted by Hood's Sarsaparilla, warrant us in urging others who suffer from rheumatism to take it before the first keen twinge.

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

A Concise and Clear Statement of Allen County's Finances.

Owing to the misrepresentations if not absolute falsehoods of the so called People's Convention managers, concerning the financial condition of Allen county, Chairman McCulloch, of the democratic county committee, addressed a letter to Treasurer John Dalman, requesting an accurate statement of the county's affairs at the close of business, September 30, 1886. Treasurer Dalman's reply is given in full, and explodes most effectually the statements made by these would be bell wethers of the people's, alias republican movement.

Hon. C. McCulloch:

In compliance with your request to furnish a statement to the public, of the condition of the treasury of Allen county, I hereby enclose such statement as shown by the books in my office at the close of business September 30, 1886:

They are Not sorry.

There is one thing nobody ever regrets—that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Its range is so wide, and its good effects so sure, that nothing else, except good nursing, are needed in a great majority of cases. Buy it, try it, and afterwards it will not require any praise from us.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE FISH HATCHERIES.

THE PERMANENT HEADQUARTERS AT WOOD'S HOLL, MASS.

What the United States is Doing to Encourage Fish Culture—Millions of Young Cod—The Albatross—Macdonald Jars. Professor Baird's Work.

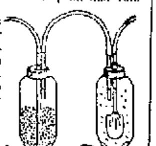

The United States was the first nation to begin the artificial propagation of codfish. It was done by the government fish commission, at the head of which is the accomplished Professor Spencer F. Baird, the "boss," so to speak, of the Smithsonian Institution, at Washington. Fish culture only began to be attended to in a small way here in 1856. It is worth noting that it was not the general government that began the work first, but the separate states. Massachusetts took the lead. Not till 1871 did the general government yield to the advanced spirit in fish culture already moving among the states. In that year the United States commission of fisheries was established by act of congress.

FISH COMMISSION BUILDINGS.

Professor Baird has been at the head from the start. At first attention was given only to the restocking of inland fresh waters with fish. These were nearly depleted of the valuable food fishes with which they teemed when the country was new. Man destroys wherever he touches in nature. Afterward sea fishes were artificially propagated, and the final triumph of our scientific workers has been the reproduction of shad and cod in large numbers.

The work of the commission has grown on its hands till it is now something stupendous. A permanent headquarters for its accommodation has been established. This is at Wood's Holl, Mass., and appears in the illustration. Wood's Holl is situated "at the heel of Cape Cod," as a writer puts it. This point was selected because it is peculiarly adapted to the hatching of codfish. What America would be without its codfish balls, that President Cleveland would be without his horseshoe. It is very important, therefore, is the codfishery of the Atlantic coast. Of the hatching of cod eggs and why Wood's Holl was selected for that purpose, Professor Baird himself says: "The water for such a purpose as this must be perfectly pure sea water and as saline as any in the ocean, nor should it be stagnant. After searching all along the New England coast from Long Island sound to Eastport we decided that right here was the very best place for our station. Here you see we are on the point of the main land between Buzzard's bay and Vineyard sound. The rise of the tides differ in the two bodies of water, and so for the greater part of the day there is a powerful current running from the bay to the sound, or the sound to the bay, through the narrow channel between this point and Naushon island over yonder. Sometimes I think the water boils and bubbles through here with greater fury than through Hell Gate before the rocks were blasted out. It is aerated almost like soda water, and has no sediment. It is perfectly saline, for there is hardly a fresh water spring within five miles of Wood's Holl. We have here a safe harbor, with eighteen feet of water at the dock at low tide. Moreover, we are handy to the railroad station."

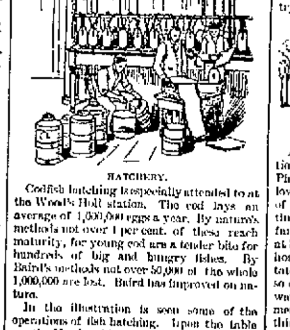

MACDONALD JARS.

Among the most successful inventions for facilitating fish hatching is the Macdonald jar. A row of glass jars is arranged, with siphons passing in and out of them. Through these a current of water flows continually. In hatching fish the water must be constantly aerated and gently stirred. The Macdonald jar accomplishes both these purposes.

There are now thirty-seven states and territories that have fish commissions of their own. It has been shown that there is one fish the farmer may have fresh all over the country the year around, except in spawning time. Unlike the trout, it does not require running waters, but will live and thrive in any pond that is not stagnant. That fish is the German carp. It was introduced into the country first on a large scale by the commission after the Berlin fisheries exposition. At that great show of fish and its appurtenances the United States took first prize, a magnificent cup, presented by the emperor of Germany to Professor Spencer F. Baird. European countries unexpectedly discovered that in all matters pertaining to improved fish culture the United States was the foremost nation in the world.

When the commission began operations it had no boat of its own, not even a catboat or a catamaran to fish with. Little sailing sloops and fishing boats were hired. Then as the work grew, a small steamer, and then another and another were borrowed from the navy department. Now the commission has four steamers, all its own.

HATCHERY.

Codfish hatching is especially attended to at the Wood's Holl station. The cod lays an average of 1,000,000 eggs a year. By nature's methods not over 1 per cent. of these reach maturity, for young cod are a tender bite for hundreds of big and hungry fishes. By Baird's methods not over 50,000 of the whole 1,000,000 are lost. Baird has improved on nature.

In the illustration is seen some of the operations of fish hatching. Upon the table are the Macdonald jars, with the siphon arrangement passing through and through them. To the right are men receiving the millions of fertilized shad eggs, and placing them in the jars. To the left are seen other workmen pouring into cans the young fish already hatched. This is preparatory to shipping. The young fish are called "fry." Batches of them are sent all over the coast, now here, now there, from Oregon, California, Gulf of Mexico to Maine. The intention is to distribute the supply evenly. "At these different points the young fish are poured into the coast waters, and left to sink or swim, survive or perish. They usually thrive handsomely.

SOME AMERICAN HOMES.

SPECIMENS OF OLD AND NEW SUBURBAN ARCHITECTURE.

Can There Be Such a Thing as an American Architecture?—Long, Low, Irregular Mansions Fashionable for the Country Now—Colonial Houses.

Many people with high art notions are fond of talking about "American architecture." "I don't believe there ain't no sich passon," says Mrs. Prig. There can be no such thing as an American architecture. In Louisiana and Alabama a house should be low and broad, with halls as wide as a room, and a large roofed veranda all about it, to make it as cool and shaded as possible. In Minnesota a dwelling will want to be just as compact and tight built as it can be made, for warmth. The walls should be of triple thickness, the windows and door casings doubly lined and joined with the utmost care. Even then the needle-like frost points of a Manitoba blizzard penetrate them and lie in curling little heaps upon the floor about the base boards. What kinship can there be between houses in which the first object is to keep heat out and those where the chief end of building is to keep it in. As has been remarked once or twice before, this is a big country.

In the old colonial days when only a small strip along the sea was inhabited, there was an architecture—American-Dutch in the neighborhood of New York and American-English in the neighborhood of Boston.

BEN: PERLEY POORE'S HOME.

But the old Dutch style stone houses, with high gables, influenced all the early building. One of the most notable of these old style American houses is the residence of Maj. Ben: Perley Poore. Maj. Poore is so well known as a Washington newspaper man and author that it will surprise many to know that he has a country home at all. That he has, and one of the quaintest, solidest old houses in the country, too. It is at Indian Hill, Mass. Maj. Poore's "fad," as the English would call it, is farming, a strange fancy for a newspaper man. But the veteran major is a fortunate journalist. He is able to throw away some of the money he earns in writing in keeping up a model farm.

There are stone houses, built in somewhat the style of Maj. Poore's, only smaller and single roofed, scattered about New Jersey and New York state that are not less than 250 years old. That ancient iron-like stone which abounds in those parts is as rigid and unchanging as Dutch customs and New England Puritanism. More so, indeed, far more. Knickerbocker ways long since gave place to the American spirit of go ahead, and New England Puritanism is only the shadow of itself. But the old houses in which Puritans sang psalms through their noses and Dutchmen smoked their pipes and drank beer remain.

Very comfortable were the old colonial houses. One strange thing impresses the delver into the architecture of those days. Even the most primitive structures, those built in the pioneer days of the Atlantic division of states, are infinitely more comfortable and durable than the pioneer houses now put up in the prairie states. The latter are rickety and pasteboardlike, like everything else in this makeshift age. The fact does not indicate improvement in the American character.

HALLWAY OF S. G. WARD'S HOME.

Some of the most beautiful of the lately built American country houses in the eastern states have returned somewhat to the old colonial pattern in construction. In the picture we have a hall and stairway from the residence of Samuel Gray Ward, of Lenox, Mass. All this region, in the neighborhood of the Berkshire hills, is picturesque, and men and means and taste have been not slow to avail themselves of its advantages in building sites. Some of the most beautiful rural mansions in America are in this neighborhood.

It is rather a noteworthy fact that while the finest homes in England are hidden away in the heart of the country, the most splendid and attractive homes of America are, without exception, in the suburbs of the large cities. They are not exactly city or country houses, but half and half, as if our rich Americans had not yet quite made up their minds whether they liked the city or country best. That is just the case. The generation of wealthy Americans immediately past clung to the city and detested country life. Now the tide of evolution is setting towards the country. It is a mark of improvement in taste.

HOME OF WILLIAM WALTER PHELPS.

A case in point is at hand. The illustration shows the residence of William Walter Phelps, Esq., at Englewood, N. J. It is "long, low and rambling" enough to suit the fancy of the veriest young lady novelist. The distinguished New Jersey congressman and his family live here all the year when they are at home, in preference to any where else. His house, like many other recent mansions, imitates the farmhouse pattern. The "cottages," so called, of the summer dwellers at our watering places furnish some notable specimens of architecture, though, like many other things American, they are vastly overdone. They are too fine, too large and costly to be inhabited only four months in the year. It is pleasant to feel sure, though, that many of our suburban homes of stone, brick and wood are as handsome and tasteful architecturally as any in the world. With the wealth that is rapidly increasing, the number of these will be constantly added to.

It is a relief to know that the high, narrow, box fashion of house is departing. Moderately low ceilings are far preferable to the lofty slit in the wall which used to be thought the correct thing. When we go one step further and have houses built of plaster on the outside, with red-tiled roofs in ridges, that will be another step toward artistic beauty.

OLIVER AMES.

The Republican Nominee for Governor of Massachusetts.

Oliver Ames, the Republican nominee for governor of Massachusetts, is a son of the late Oakes Ames, the celebrated promoter of the Union Pacific railroad, and possessor of the "little memorandum book" in the Credit-Mobilier investigation. Oakes Ames was a large manufacturer of farming implements, to which the present candidate, Oliver Ames, has succeeded, and to which his father qualified him by putting him to work in the shovel works at an early age to work alongside of the other workmen and learn the business thoroughly. Mr. Ames is now 55 years of age. He has managed his father's business with wonderful ability. He is a large stockholder in a score or more of railroads, and also finds time to devote to politics. He was a member of the state senate in 1880-'81, and he has twice received the nomination of his party for lieutenant governor.

OLIVER AMES.

Sudden Changes of temperature, especially at night, just now, are apt to cause indisposition. A little imprudence often brings about serious illness. In such cases POND'S EXTRACT is invaluable. Dr. Preston, of Brooklyn, writes, "I know of no remedy so generally useful in a family." Taken internally and externally, it cools, soothes and cures inflammation of every sort, and controls and subdues all kinds of Hemorrhages. Beware of worthless imitations.

Huntington has a new fire engine for trial.

In the Dear Old Days.

We differ in creed and politics, but we are a unit all the same on the desirableness of a fine head of hair. If you mourn the loss of this blessing and ornament, a bottle or two of Parker's Hair Balsam will make you look as you did in the dear old days. It is worth trying. It is the only standard 50c article for the hair.

The Woodworth meetings at Muncie are supported by every minister in town, save one.

That weak back or pain in the side or hips you will find immediately relieved when a Hop Plaster is applied. It strengthens the muscles, giving the ability to do hard work without suffering. Take none but this, 'tis sure.

The Co-operative Mining company at Fontanet, Clah county, has failed, with liabilities of $10,000, with insignificant assets. The share-holders numbered fifty, and the failure is due to quarrels among them.

Consumption Can be Cured.

Not by any secret remedy, but by proper healthful exercise and the judicious use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites, containing the healing and strength-giving virtues of these two valuable specifics in their fullest form. Prescribed universally by physicians. Take no other.

The prisoners of the Warsaw jail throttled Sheriff Stevenson Saturday night and after a desperate struggle, in which Mrs. Stevenson was hurt, the crooks all escaped. Sheriff Stevenson has offered $100 each for the apprehension of the rascals.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

The Salvation Army is about to march on the Logansport hosts of sin.

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders, syringes, astringents or any similar application, because they are all irritating, do not reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.

ANSON HOUGH, of Blackberry, Ills., says he owes his life to Gilmore's Magnetic Elixir. Try it.

MR. A. HIGGINS, of Wyoming, N. Y., says he had the piles for nearly 40 years, and was cured by using Gilmore's Pile specific.

WHY WILL YOU SUFFER from ague and malaria when Gilmore's Aromatic Wine will cure you.

GILMORE'S NEURALGIA CURE is a positive cure for neuralgia in the face, side and stomach.

JOHN H. YATES, of Batavia, N. Y., says:

"I cheerfully commend
Your AROMATIC WINE;
It did new life and vigor send
Through this weak frame of mine.
It did for all my stomach ills
More than the doctor and his pills."

THE CITY NEWS.

Mrs. R. C. Kelly and daughters returned from Cincinnati yesterday.

Theobald Ruderman paid $11.80 for a big spree at police court this morning.

George Scholl, the Barr street druggist, who recently sold out, is going to Kansas City.

Miss Edith, daughter of Justice and Mrs. Daniel Ryan, returned to day from a visit with Ohio friends.

Miss Minnie Doelker, of East Columbia street, fell from a step-ladder, yesterday, and fractured her plump left arm.

Fred Toenges will be married to Miss Emilie Boese, daughter of Fred Boese at the St. Paul's Lutheran church this evening.

The one-armed and one-legged veterans are receiving the $6 increase of pension granted them by the last democratic congress.

A big pane of glass broke into pieces this morning as the workmen were putting it into the front of Capt. J. B. White's new building.

Mrs. Captain Bradley, of the Grand Central hotel, and Mrs. George Fredericks, of West Lewis street have gone on an extended tour through northern Michigan.

The clock peddlers and promiscuous solicitors are prohibited from plying their vocation without a city license, under a decision of the supreme court rendered Tuesday.

Mr. C. S. Knight, manager of the gas works, will start on a western tour to-night. His son, who took a leave of absence a few weeks ago, is again at home, somewhat wiser.

Yesterday afternoon workmen were engaged in putting in casing at the oil well in the east end. Mr. Bowman, who superintends the work, is very sanguine of striking gas, and that before long.

John N. White and Julia French, Wm. Bruns and Caroline Ertel, Fred Toengers and Eliza Boese, Phillip Krick and Caroline Johnson, Frank E. Reckers and Elizabeth Rohnen have been licensed to wed.

Sub-Contractor Smith is the only man now at work on Little River ditch. J. W. Gray abandoned his work and it is said Mike Bolles will relinquish his subcontract. The ditch promoters held a meeting to-day to look into the bonds of the contractors.

Building permits have been granted to O. B. Fitch to erect an addition to his house on Calhoun street, opposite Butler street, to cost $300 and to J. H. Bunking, to build a barn on lot 118, Lowin' addition, to cost $100.

"Can you tell me anything about the postage stamp flirtation?" asks a subscriber. "Certainly," was the answer. "When he writes to you and puts two stamps on a one-stamp letter, he loves you. When he puts a one stamp on a two-center letter, he likes you; when he leaves off the stamp altogether, he loves another."

Chicagos chances for flying the pennant this year, are not so good as they were a week ago. In yesterday's games Chicago was defeated by New York and Detroit was victorious over Washington. Chicago has yet three games to play with Boston, and Detroit four games with Philadelphia, all to be played this week, as the season closes on the 9th. The records at the end of yesterday's games was, Chicago won 88, lost 33; Detroit won 86, lost 34.

C. M. Hayes, who on October 1 stepped into the position of assistant general manager of the Wabash, had been private secretary to Col. A. A. Talmage for a period of years extending through that gentleman's management of both the Missouri Pacific and Wabash roads, and is one of the most efficient and popular young railroad men in the west. His appointment gives general satisfaction in railroad circles, and congratulations have flowed in upon him from all quarters. He is probably the youngest man in the country occupying so high and important a position, he being under thirty years of age.

Almost every liquor dealer in the city has received a circular asking them to take no part in politics. The circular no doubt originated with the republican state central committee and seeks to leave the impression that in case the republicans carry the legislature that no legislation detrimental to their interests will be adopted. What a change has come over the republicans. It has only been a few weeks since the republicans were denouncing the liquor league and claiming that it was an ally of the democratic party. Now they ask that dealers in liquors take no part in politics and half way promise that their business shall in no wise be disturbed if the republicans carry the legislature. This is another explanation of the fearfully and wonderfully made platform.

The Fort Wayne Turnverein will elect officers to-night.

Lemuel C. Paine sues Jacob M. Fredrickson for $250. Randall & Vesey filed the suit.

Amanda Ann Rupert sues Catherine Stevens and others to quiet title to real estate. W. G. Coleriok filed the suit.

Judge O'Rourke gave Jennie Fletcher a judgment for $117.70 against Ruth Wells. This case questioned John A. Scott's bookkeeping.

The promoters of the gas well, in the eastern part of the city, can sell the well to the White wheel works for $500, even if gas is not discovered.

The mission at the Cathedral calls out an unprecedented attendance to every service and the Passionist fathers are preaching eloquent sermons every day.

Hon. J. H. Rice, the popular auditor of state, was in the city to-day. He tells us he will deliver the office over to our esteemed townsman, Major Munson, in due time.

Charles Krudop celebrated the twenty-first anniversary of his birth yesterday and his young friends tendered him a serenade.

Mrs. Louisa Dalman, mother of James Flinn, received word this morning that the remains would arrive sometime Friday. Further notice of the funeral will be given.

Miss Alice Johnson, aged twenty-two years, died yesterday of cholera morbus, and her funeral will occur to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the family home at No. 18 Baker street. The young lady had been ill but two days.

J. P. Stapleford some time ago purchased four horses and two oil tank tank wagons from a stranger. The Bloomfield oil company held chattel mortgages on the property and this morning replevied them. Mr. Stapleford gave bond for the amount involved.

Charles H. Collins, a Pittsburg brakeman, was struck by the overhead bridge at Valparaiso last night and knocked senseless. He lives at 198 East Lewis street, and was taken there this morning. Dr. Stemen predicts his recovery, although he still lies in a semi-conscious condition.

The controversy between the Wabash and St. Louis, Kansas City and Colorado railroad over the right of the latter to an entrance to St. Louis over the Wabash tracks, has been decided in favor of the Colorado line (Harry Drew's railroad), the master holding that by payment of trackage it is entitled to the use of the road.

A Washington special says, that in an interview Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton said: "The president is going to turn every man out of office who has violated the civil service law, or disregarded the order pertaining to participating in politics." This was said during a conversation respecting the attitude of Indiana democrats toward civil service reform.

It is the intention of President Roberts, of the Pennsylvania, to start west some time this week for the purpose of making his annual trip of inspection over the company's lines. Meanwhile considerable pressure has been brought to bear to induce him to postpone it so that a meeting can be brought about among the trunk line presidents. Mr. Rober is was in Fort Wayne just about a year ago.

Many a child goes astray, not because there is a grievance at home, but simply because home lacks sunshine. A child needs smiles as much as the flowers need sunbeams. Children look little beyond the present moment. If a thing pleases, they are apt to seek it; if it displeases they are apt to avoid it. If home is a place where faces are sour and words harsh, and fault-finding is ever in the ascendant, they will spend as many hours as possible elsewhere.

McNish, Johnson & Slavin gave an excellent performance at the opera house last evening to the largest audience that ever assembled in the Temple, standing room being at a premium long before 8 o'clock. This company gives a refined minstrel show, just as they advertise, and while some of their gags are aged there is much new and original fun. Bob Slavin is by far the funniest man in the company. He is a funnier man than George Wilson. One of the best features of the performance was that presented by Ranza and Arno, the gymnasts. They gave a marvelous and extremely funny performance. Mr. Frank Howard, the popular composer and sweet singer, gave his new song, "Sweet Heather Bells," and was rewarded with an encore, as were others of the party. It is estimated that 200 people were unable to get into the opera house last night.

J. M. McKinnie, a carpenter employed in constructing a new bridge on the Nickel Plate road across the St. Mary's river, near Orff's mill, was struck by a falling truss or beam of timber at 1 o'clock this morning while at work with the night gang. His skull was crushed and he died almost instantly. McKinnie's age was about thirty. He was unmarried. His mother resides at Geneva, Pennsylvania. His body lies at Poffer's morgue to await instructions from his home.

Mr. M. H. Moynihan, of Asheville, N. C., is visiting relatives in the city for a few weeks.

Rev. Father Romer, of this city, was in Michigan City yesterday, visiting his former parishioners and friends.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana have made two changes in the time of trains, necessitating the printing of a new time card.

C. R. Gardner's "Zozo," Oct. 11 and 12, Alma Le Grand in "Patent Rights," Oct. 15 and 16, are the coming attractions at the Temple.

There were three big democratic meetings in the country last night, and everywhere the speakers and candidates met great crowds of people.

Hon. T. P. Kestor is now making a ten day campaign tour of the state. During his absence W. S. Cooper will do the local work on the Gazette.

The funeral of the late Hon. B. D. Miner will take place from his residence, No. 64 Douglass avenue, Saturday next at 2 p. m. He leaves a wife and seven children to survive him.

Eastern papers report that good progress is being made in the reorganization of the "poor old Wabash road," and that by Jan. 1 it will be in shape to take out of the hands of the receivers.

The following new suits have been filed before Judge O'Rourke: Lemuel C. Paine vs. Jacob M. Frederickson. Foreclosure. Demand, $2,500. Sophia Brower vs. Anna M. Archer et al. To reform deed and quiet title. Bloomfield Oil company vs. Lucian P. Stapleford. Replevin. Demand, $500.

H. F. Houghton, trainmaster of the Detroit division of the Wabash, with headquarters at Butler, has resigned to accept the position of superintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio road. He is succeeded by W. C. Heth, chief train dispatcher at Fern, who in turn is succeeded by R. V. Dutcher.

Chaska's Opening.

A SENTINEL representative visited the grand cloak opening at Chaska's yesterday. These openings are eagerly looked for by the ladies of Fort Wayne as the seasons come, and the one yesterday was no exception. The attendance, remarked Mr. Chaska, is larger than in any other previous occasion, while the display also is more varied, consisting of a large and select line of short wraps, walking jackets, raglans, and plush coats and newmarkets, an exhibition equal to any Chicago house. Among the long list of sales made yesterday was one for a $110 cloak, considered to be the finest cloak ever shown in this city. The opening will continue until Friday evening, and to each customer Mr. Chaska presents a hand mirror.

A GRAND SUCCESS.

Vast Numbers of Ladies Visit Mergenthaim's Grand Millinery and Cloak Opening Yesterday.

Yesterday was the first day of Mergenthaim's opening and from early morning crowds of ladies visited the scene of hats and bonnets. The display this fall is unusually large, embracing the latest styles and shapes in ladies head wear, and eliciting many expressions of delight from the visitors. In the cloak department the display was equally fine. The opening will continue until Friday evening and a cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies who have not visited it, to call.
